Application Building

Now we have model is trained in this particular milestone will be building our flask application which will be running in our local browser with a user interface.